PUBLIC PRAISES BOYCOTT OF ANDERSON UNITED FUND

Says Negroes Shouldn't Help Biased Groups

ANDERSON — The boycott of the United Fund drive in Anderson by the Madison County NAACP branch has been enthusiastically received by the public, both white and colored, Rev. Robert L. Saunders, pastor of Second Baptist Church and chairman of the Anderson NAACP community relations committee, told The Recorder Thursday.

In a mass meeting held Sunday night at Second Baptist, Rev. Saunders urged "all persons interested in obtaining full civil rights for minority groups" not to contribute to the United Fund because of its support of the Anderson YMCA which refuses membership to Negroes.

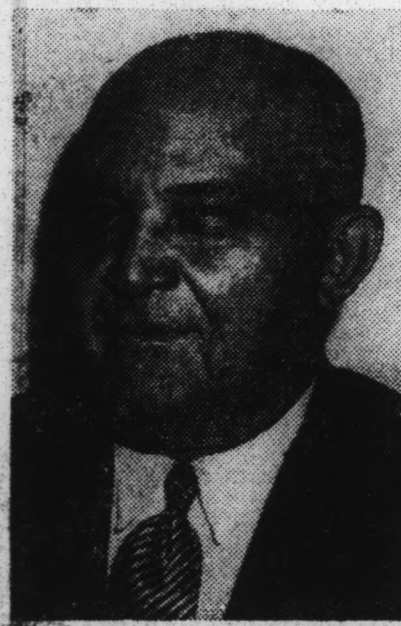

Program Honoring M. E. Nolcox Set for November 2 at Attucks

A recognition program in honor of Matthias Nolcox will be held Wednesday, Nov. 2 in the Attucks auditorium. Mr. Nolcox was the first principal of Attucks. Some 15 noted local citizens will be on the platform to participate in this tribute.

Mr. Nolcox, 75, began his teaching career in Patoka, Ind., at the age of 18. Since then he has taught in a number of schools in Indiana and Alabama, serving 26 years in the Indianapolis public school system.

A native Hoosier, Mr. Nolcox was born in Gibson County. Throughout his career he has worked avidly as an educator and has served earnestly in the YMCA, as a member of the executive board and organizer of the Men's Bible Class. Since his retirement in 1952 he has worked toward receiving his professorship in education at Anderson College and enjoys managing the family farm at Princeton.

He and his wife, Marie, have four children: Rudolph, an engineer; Noble and Vernon, teachers; and Joycelan, an accountant.

Motor Vehicles Dept. Post Taken By Gary Attorney

GARY — J. Maurice Patton, 32-year-old Gary attorney, becomes the second Negro in the state of Indiana to serve as a hearing judge in the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, it was learned this week.

His appointment was made in Indianapolis Oct. 16 by Allan Nutting, commissioner of motor vehicles.

He takes over the office from Terry Gray, a Gary city councilman who resigned Oct. 1. Gray was the first Negro appointed a hearing judge under the Welsh administration.

Patton, a graduate of Lincoln High School in Kansas City, Mo., and a 1958 graduate of the Howard University Law School, will work out of the Gary bureau. His responsibility will be to hear cases where jurisdiction of the bureau has been invoked and to determine whether or not driver's license, registration plates or registration certificate.

White Man, Son Held For Refusing Service To 19 Negroes

GARY (ANP) — A 65-year-old father and his 37-year-old son were arrested last week and freed on bond pending a Nov. 3 appearance in city court for refusing to serve Negroes in their restaurant.

The warrant charged that Ralph Iatarola and his son, Joseph, violated Indiana Civil Rights laws. The warrant naming Ralph Iatarola was signed by Fredericka Walls, Chicago, a librarian in Gary, who said she and a white woman were refused service on Sept. 6.

The warrant naming Joseph Iatarola was signed by Wendell Sexton, chairman of the Young Adults Council of the Gary branch of the NAACP. It charged that he and 11 other Negroes were refused service on Oct. 12.

The charges were filed after several sit-in demonstrations last week in which Negroes were refused service on grounds the restaurant was closed.

Observers said the Iatarolas normally close their business during the winter months.

A JUST REWARD: In behalf of the hundreds of youths who have benefited through the years from the guidance and counsel of the "grand old man" of Indianapolis, Charles Brown presents a token of appreciation to Ralph Kendrick Smith. The presentation took place Oct. 21 at the

Majority of Negroes In State Jobs Make Under $52 Weekly

Although there is a greater percentage of Negroes working for the state government than in Indiana's population, a majority of them are paid less than $2,800 a year, it was revealed this week.

The Indiana Civil Rights Commission released the figures from its survey of employment practices, race-wise, of the state government. The survey was compiled by Mrs. Virginia Heiss, research director.

The total number of state employees reported by race to the commission was 21,022. Of these 2,038, or 9.7 percent are "non-white."

On the face of it, this compares favorably with the population percentage for "non-whites," who in 1950 numbered 4.4 percent of the state's population and have been coming in rapidly ever since.

BUT WHEN THE payroll figures are broken down, the question arises whether their state is doing something for these people or they are doing something for it.

A percentage of 53.7 of the Negro workers, or more than half, are working for less than $2,800 a year which figures out to $53.09 a week, before deductions. And that is HAY!

In the white group, only 26.6 percent are in this bottom bracket. At the other or "gray" end of the train—$6,000 and over—the survey revealed 12.6 percent of the white state employees but only 1.6 percent of the Negroes.

The complete breakdown, by salary range and race, was:

	White	Negro
Under $2,800	26.6	53.7
$2,800-$3,600	33.2	36.1
$3,600-$4,800	13.2	6.0
$4,800-$6,000	9.4	2.6
$6,000 & over	12.6	1.6

According to the survey, there are 32 Negroes—as contrasted with 2,338 whites—in the top "$6,000 and over" bracket.

THE SURVEY WAS not broken down by departments and jobs, but Harold O. Hatcher, director of the commission, told a Recorder newsmen:

"These jobs held by Negroes are mostly in the state hospitals, as attendants, maids and as janitorial workers in the various departments. "A few of the better-paid are in the merit system positions. These are the jobs Negroes should seek to get."

"There is definitely discrimination within specific departments of the state government. There are departments which employ no Negroes at all."

One official who refused to comment.

No Jimcrow in Swank Project, NAACP Warns

by CHARLES S. PRESTON

The NAACP dramatically served notice Thursday morning that the new luxury Project H "apartment city" to be built on the downtown Eastside must follow policies of open occupancy without regard to race.

Standing on the rubble of old houses demolished by the Indianapolis Redevelopment Commission, and with a giant excavating crane spraying clouds of dust across a group of reporters, Atty. John Preston Ward said:

"We are not going to stand idly by and allow Negro tax money to go into redeveloping land and buildings that fence Negroes out."

"Indiana law clearly forbids it and we are prepared to go to the U. S. Supreme Court to see that the law is enforced."

Meanwhile the Redevelopment Commission, in an apparent "hurry-up" move prompted by the NAACP's action, only a few minutes earlier let the contract for the $50,000,000 project.

THE SEQUENCE OF rapid-fire developments was as follows:

1. With a considerable portion of the land already cleared, the Commission on Oct. 17 received bids from five companies for the new spectacular living area. It announced it would make an award Nov. 7.

2. On Tuesday, Rev. Andrew J. Brown, president of the Indianapolis NAACP branch, wrote to Charles E. Wagner, Redevelopment Commission president, calling his attention to a little-known clause of the 1945 Redevelopment Act which reads:

"Provided that no provision of this act shall authorize the exclusion of any citizen from a zoned area because of his or her race, creed or national origin."

Rev. Brown pointed out that bidders must be notified of the non-discrimination policy prior to the acceptance of bids, and added, "Naturally, we are vitally interested."

MISS SANDS, who is now in her third week at the Nevada playspot, has become a favorite nite club entertainer in Los Angeles, where she is presently making her home.

THE YOUNG and curvaceous singing and dancing star studied here under the well known Billie Douglass for 9 years and one year with Jon Lei, who was formerly with the Katherine Durham dancers. Miss Sands, whose real name is Ronella Saunders, has been singing and dancing since she was 10 years old, and has been among the stars on the annual Recorder Christmas show from that time until she moved to Los Angeles a few years ago.

A. D. C. Program Aid Sought By State Welfare Agency

Through a plan initiated in March of this year by the Marion County Department of Public Welfare, mothers receiving Assistance to Dependent Children were helped to find jobs or began taking vocational training.

Since then more than 60 families have been removed from the welfare rolls or had monthly payments substantially reduced.

Wayne Stanton, director and the Intensive Casework Unit, which is working on the project, announced that funds in the special Vocational Rehabilitation Fund are completely exhausted and outside aid is desperately needed.

The need for the additional money has increased as more workers are assigned to this unit to work with an increasing number of families. There are now six case workers and a supervisor assigned to the unit which is working with over 180 cases.

Twenty-five persons are already in training and 35 individuals are employed, many of whom are no longer receiving assistance. Individuals receiving remuneration from the Trust Fund sign agreements to repay the agency any money expended in their behalf.

Many groups, sororities and organizations have already assisted with contributions in varying amounts which are used to assist persons with transportation, clothing, lunch money and other incidental expenses while the women are in training or when they receive employment but have not received their first pay check.

Persons interested in helping with this program are urged to call Mrs. Bobby Brown, Unit supervisor, at ME. 8-1531. A representative will be glad to speak to any person interested in knowing more about the program, according to a spokesman.

Elks to Make 3rd Tent City Trip; Ask Public Help

Representatives of Indiana Elks Lodge 104 are making a third trip to Somerville, Tenn., with trucks loaded with food and clothing, if they can get enough support from the public, a spokesman for the lodge said this week.

The spokesman said the lodge members hope to depart on their next expedition Friday, Nov. 3. Clothes, canned or boxed goods will be picked up if persons desiring to help in this worthwhile cause will call the Recorder office at ME. 4-1545.

A delegation, headed by the Elks State President Raymond J. Hill, has already made two "mercy" trips to the needy families of Fayette Co. who were forced to move from their homes because they registered to vote last year.

THE FAMILIES, approximately 16 of them, were driven to tents on vacant lots, and have thus become nationally known as "Tent City Tenants."

On the last trip the Elks reported the families were "simply pitiful and the living conditions were extremely poor and unworthy of human habitation."

They also said the white farm owners and others seem to refuse to aid them in any way—even as much as providing a small job.

One observer said just seeing the mothers and babies forsaken by the general public and unable to do for themselves "makes one wonder if it is every American's right to vote."

Street on the south, Fort Wayne Avenue and 10th Street on the north, Hudson Street on the west and Cleveland Street on the east.

Under the Redevelopment law, the Commission is clearing away the old buildings at public expense and then selling the land to a private contractor, in this case the Klein and Kuhn group. Attorney Ward pointed out that the Commission continues to "exercise supervising control," as in zoning requirements for new buildings.

The Klein and Kuhn plan calls for 1,842 living units with seven different size apartments ranging up to 12-story buildings. The project would include skating rinks, restaurants, neighborhood recreation centers, underground parking-shopping areas, raised pedestrian walkways and other "future living" features.

THE NON-DISCRIMINATION question has not arisen in previous Redevelopment operations in this city because the earlier projects have been in Negro neighborhoods and designed for lower-middle income occupants. However, it has been debated in Terre Haute, where a similar urban renewal plan is going ahead.

Attorney Ward told reporters he had no reason to believe Project H will be jimmied other than "the fact that the regular pattern of private enterprise housing in Indianapolis is segregated."

"But if it's made clear in advance that the project will be open to all without discrimination, we'll be that much further ahead," he added.

Several years ago, a Federally-assisted public housing project here was killed by the City Council after circulation of a pattern accompanying a racial "whispering campaign."

MR. WARD, SUBSTITUTING for Rev. Brown who was ill, also demanded Negro representation on the Redevelopment Commission.

"There is a growing number of informed people who are sick and tired of the phony ballyhoo about Indianapolis' big-talk, low-yield housing program," he said.

"It is high time the Redevelopment Commission represented more than the business, financial and real estate interests. A hundred thousand Negroes will no longer stand for their lack of representation on the Redevelopment Commission or any other policy-making body."

"The support we have received from the community is overwhelming," Rev. Saunders related. "Even local white ministers and city officials have praised our stand. They feel we have taken a 'step in the right direction.'"

Questioned about the effect the action might have on the Urban League, an interracial organization which is also supported by the United Fund, Rev. Saunders said people are being urged to contribute directly to the League. "It is not our intention to stymie the program of any group working toward the realization of our ultimate goal of equal rights for all citizens regardless of race, creed or religious affiliations."

CONTACTED IN NEW YORK at the NAACP national office, Glover B. Current, NAACP director of branches, said that the national office had not been notified of the action by the Anderson branch but "We support them 100 percent."

"THE TIME HAS COME," Mr. Current remarked, "with this nation facing the possibility of a nuclear war, for all citizens to stand together. Our country can no longer afford to serve the Communist nations one of their greatest propaganda weapons on a silver platter."

He did not comment on the possibility of a national boycott in other cities where similar situations exist.

Robert Williams, state advisor of the NAACP Youth Councils, announced this week that the annual meeting and 1961 state conference will be held Oct. 27, 28 and 29 in Fort Wayne.

Headquarters for the three-day session will be at the Van Orman Hotel. Joe Adams of Fort Wayne, acting state president, and his Young Adult and Youth Chapter have left "no stone unturned" to make the stay in Fort Wayne most enjoyable.

Among important events on the agenda are the election of officers and a state advisor, pep rallies, civil rights workshops, and a civil rights mass meeting to close the sessions. Socially in the planning are luncheons, banquets and teen hops.

Registration will begin at 12 noon Friday followed by the opening session. A highlight of state activities will be prizes and awards given to the council with the largest representation and to the individual and council who have done the most in the field of "Civil Rights" for the year 1960-61.

Orlando Taylor is president of the Fort Wayne Adult Branch.

AWM Attend State Convention

The Washington Hotel was the scene of the 32nd annual Indiana State Convention of American War Mothers at which several members of Indianapolis Chapter 41 and Haughville Chapter were present.

Heading Chapter 41 was Mrs. Josephine Baker, president and Haughville Chapter, Mrs. Irene Woods, president. Others attending were from Chapter 41, Mesdames Bertha Randolph, past chapter president; Carrie Diggs, past chapter president, Pearl Chambers, chapter treasurer and Julia M. Polliam, delegate.

Haughville representatives included Mesdames Irene Woods, president; Thelma Toler, past president; Lillian Keys, Emma Porter, past president and Katherine Pullins, first vice-president.

The two chapters were hostesses at a breakfast in the Tropic Room and also enjoyed tea served delegates at the Governor's Mansion. Adding to the impressive and beautiful banquet and installation of officers was a Hawaiian motif carried out in decorations and the dinner menu.

An inspiring message was delivered by Rev. Frank O. Taaffel. Chapter 41 of the American War Mothers will meet Sunday, Nov. 5, at the residence of Mrs. Chambers, 3422 Kenwood for a pitch-in dinner.

Various opinions and explanations have been heard concerning the Friday night production of the fifth annual Frontiers Artists and Models Ball at the plush Indiana Roof Ballroom—all agreed it was indeed an exuberant affair and only had the most favorable comments for the local Frontiers of America—hosts at the fabulous presentation.

At the luscious champagne circles could be seen top personalities of the city sipping champagne and munching goodies provided by the Frontiers especially for the elite.

And the crowd as time passed by grew large in size so that when charming Mrs. A'Leia Bundles, vice-president of the Madame C.J. Walker Company and commentator, was introduced by Joseph Williams, a Frontiersman, a large round of applause was sounded.

To open the show one of the models, pretty Miss Barbara Crowe and Richard Brand were presented in a dance routine with the theme: "Les Bohemes."

Following this number, a bevy of 11 lovely contestants gracefully paraded on the ballroom floor in semi-formal gowns to be officially introduced to the gracious gathering individually and in the spot light by A. W. Hamilton of the Frontiers.

Miss Hazel Ward, an extremely talented Miss, sang her interpretation of "Pennies From Heaven" with background music provided by Larry Liggett and his combo, after the procession of models.

Jacito with Valentino and Cynthia were great in an act especially for the "beatniks" in the vast audience. In real life Miss Cynthia Winters on the flute, Wayne Rhodes on the maracas and Jack Thompson and Jerry Valentine on the bongos were featured in an "espresso entertainment" act which really sent the guests—particularly the ones who were "way out."

Attired in black tights and gold jackets, Richard Brand and the Misses Barbara Crowe, Sandra Jackson, June Jordan, Sandra Lawrence and Patricia Williams captured the attention of the guests in an exotic number: "Fever."

Producers of this number were Barbara Wilson, choreography; Tom Eubanks, costume design and make-up; and Doryce Hodge, Roberta White and Russell White, costume executors.

Throughout the first acts of the four-hour show pretty Miss Leatrice Porter, "Queen of the 1960 Frontiers Ball" reigned in the queen's chair which was enhanced in silver and gold and adorned with sequins.

This picture of elegance was perfected by the stunning green satin ballerina length gown worn by the outgoing queen and her shining crown donated by Shirley Flower Shop.

Draped around her shoulders was a floor-length coat of gold, lined with silver. She had matching green accessories, white gloves and an orchid corsage.

Each contestant vying for queen was escorted to the center of the ballroom where each proceeded to the stage and was introduced. An anticipatory crowd awaited the judges' decision and finally Miss Pamela Brown was recognized as third place winner, Miss Donna Burres, second place winner and petite Miss Dianne Colbert Frontiers Artists and Models was crowned "Queen of the 1961 Ball."

Miss Porter gave up her throne to Miss Colbert who accepted the Continued on Page 8

Fulfilling Obligation to Local Pioneers, Mrs. William F. Cannon Slates Reception

Feeling obligated to contribute something to local Pioneers for the "friendship" given her, Mrs. William F. Cannon of 332 N. California, well-known Westside socialite, will exhibit this generous sentiment when she entertains a select group of Pioneers at a reception to be held Sunday, Nov. 5, at 4 p. m. at the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA — on her 83rd birthday.

MRS. WILLIAM F. CANNON

Her travels have taken her to London, Paris, Frankfurt, Germany; Puerto Rico, Cuba, New Mexico, Nassau in the Bahamas and Canada abroad. Nation-wide she has visited Key West of Florida, South Carolina, Missouri, Michigan, Louisiana, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Minnesota, North Carolina, Kansas, Hawaii, Connecticut, California, Illinois, Maryland, Arkansas, Utah, New York, Ohio, Maine, Montana, Nebraska, Kentucky and Massachusetts.

Just this past summer, the Westside woman traveled to Alaska where she vacationed for three weeks. Highlight of the trip was a visit to Fairbanks, largest city in Central Alaska.

According to Mrs. Cannon, all her trips have been made by plane and the most recent one was by jet. Usually she travels alone though on her trip to Europe she treated her foster son by taking him along as a companion.

In answer to the question "What impression did you get from traveling abroad?" she answered, "I wouldn't give one corner of America for Europe. I'm an American and unusually patriotic."

Mrs. Cannon is considered one of the "best dressed women" in town. Besides her son living here, she has a half-sister, Mrs. Dollie Blackwell, who resides in San Francisco and Clyde Raby, twin brother of Robert, who refers to himself as her "other son."

Mrs. Cannon remarked that she is extremely close to both men and that Clyde is studying veterinary medicine at Tuskegee Institute and writes her frequently.

The family of physicist Charles E. Harrington. All the Harrington children were Carnation babies. "My doctor recommended Carnation," Mrs. Harrington explains. This milk in the red-and-white can is the world's leader for infant feeding.

Five little Harringtons — and how they do grow! (Their doctor recommended Carnation)

Daddy is a government physicist. Mother is active in PTA, church and community projects. "And I'm busiest of all at home," Mrs. Harrington admits, "with five little Harringtons. They all got started on a Carnation formula."

Eight out of 10 mothers who feed their babies a Carnation formula say: "My doctor recommended it." Carnation is the safest, most nourishing and digestible form of milk for baby's bottle. Ask your doctor about Carnation — the milk every doctor knows.

This milk that's best for babies is best for coffee, cereals and cooking, too! Carnation is the milk you can use like cream — with 1/2 the fat calories, and at 1/2 the cost of cream. Try Bunburger recipe, shown at right.

Martin Luther King Rejects Role in 'Advise and Consent'

NEW YORK (ANP)—Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., announced Saturday that he has decided to turn down the role of a Negro Senator from Georgia in the movie "Advise and Consent."

Several Southern leaders had expressed unfavorable comment about the offer after Producer-Director Otto Preminger announced on the previous day he had hired King for a bit part in the movie. The best-selling novel about Washington politics, from which the movie is being made, does not include any such character as a Negro Senator from Georgia.

The integration leader said in a handwritten statement, which he read to newsmen, that "the brief role could not be of any significance in advancing civil rights."

LATER, AFTER READING the statement, he added that he felt he was "a leader in the civil rights struggle and not an actor."

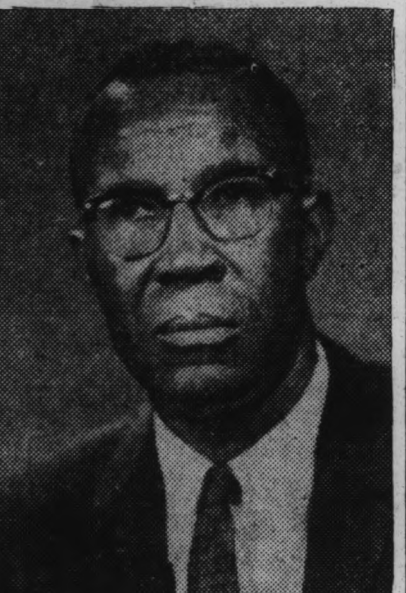

"Also, I do feel that there may have been many misunderstandings and misinterpretations if I had accepted. It may have been interpreted as my seeking publicity at any cost," King said upon his arrival here, en route to Hamden, Conn., for a speaking engagement.

As to the possible impact in the South if he had accepted the role, King said, "I am sure that the feelings of some of the people, some of the reactionary people in the South, would have been inflamed since the role portrays a Negro as a Senator. But I wasn't worried about that," he said.

Dr. King is co-pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta and president of the Southern Christian Leadership conference.

HISTORICALLY, Negroes were elected to the United States Senate from Southern states after the Civil War and as late as the Reconstruction Period until 1881.

Police Brutality, a Menace to Community

A self-respecting young Northside business man during the last fortnight has made charges of an unwarranted assault on his person by a city police officer.

The young man was arrested nearby to a Northside sandwich-shop where a police detail was investigating a shooting incident. In keeping with the observations of some witnesses or the victim of the assault, some of the details preceding his arrest appear to indicate irregular actions on the part of several police officers.

Following his arrest, on answering in municipal court to charges made by police, the victim of the assault charged he was abused at police headquarters in vile language, threatened with dire harm and kicked both in his stomach and his backside.

His complaint or the charges in some manner remind one of the tactics of Nazi Storm Troopers visited upon a guileless populace of Hitler's Germany. Or again one is reminded of worse (parallel situations) visited upon a guileless populace in the latitude of our land where the life of Emmett Till was exacted by spirits of 17th Century sadism.

However, we submit that our environment does not afford necessarily the guileless populace of a Nazi Germany, or the latitude wherein Emmett Till lost his life to the 20th Century spirit of sadism in our Christian civilization. Otherwise the abusive policeman has been exonerated in keeping with reports on the charges or complaints.

However, this appears to be in keeping with the course of things — at least on many, many reports charging members of the police department with acts of brutality in the street or at headquarters, witnesses and victims have submitted the like.

Eventually there is something generally disconcerting in any reflections of untoward conduct on the part of a citizen in contact with a duly authorized or constituted police official. All duly constituted police officials are "supposed" to represent the integrity or dignity and above all the astuteness of law and order, in their roles of maintaining law and order.

However, one might entertain some misgivings while presupposing that all duly constituted police officials "do represent" the integrity or dignity and above all the astuteness of law and (civil equity) order. And sometimes it appears conclusively that they waive the fitting regard due them in their roles of maintaining law and order.

From time to time, and/or times too numerous in very recent years, citizens in all walks of life have been making complaints against members of our police department involving charges of undue conduct or brutality. On the basis of complaints or charges of witnesses and aggrieved individuals — it seems that "where there has been too much smoke, there has been some fire."

The fire is the thing that might on some future date afford a menace to our entire community. We ponder with unceasing anxiety the visitation upon ordinarily staid citizens of the tactics of Nazi Storm Troopers, by morose or biased and/or sometimes "maudlin, unkinged cops."

Thus we contemplate that "for every action there is eventually some contrary reaction." Otherwise under pressure of abuse or maltreatment by a biased, morose or sometimes "maudlin, unkinged cop" — somebody reaction may result in incidents shocking the civic pride of "our no mean city of homes. Or again one incident or such incidents may make unforgettable and unsavory history in our community.

'Rights Body' Urges Training Bias Halt

The U. S. Civil Rights Commission, a six-member bipartisan group, in a recent commentary urged action by both the Kennedy Administration and Congress to open up more skilled job opportunities to Negro workers over the nation.

"No program designed to eliminate discrimination in employment can be completely effective unless it includes efforts to eliminate discrimination in recruitment and training facilities," it stated further.

Again the commission charged that federal funds are still being used to finance discriminatory state employment agencies and vocational training policies which tend to keep Negro workers from seeking or obtaining training in fields which in the past have been closed largely to them.

However, of twenty-six international unions which had racial restrictions "as recently as 1940, twenty-five have dropped the color bar. Notwithstanding existing civil rights machinery has not eliminated discriminatory practices and policies of some local unions," the commission reported.

Among other recommendations the commission: Urged the President to issue an executive order "making it clear" that employment resulting from federal grants-in-aid to states and cities is subject to the same non-discrimination requirements as employment by government contractors.

Called for legislation to provide expanded federal aid in vocational education, apprenticeship training and retraining of jobless workers "on a non-discriminatory, non-segregated basis."

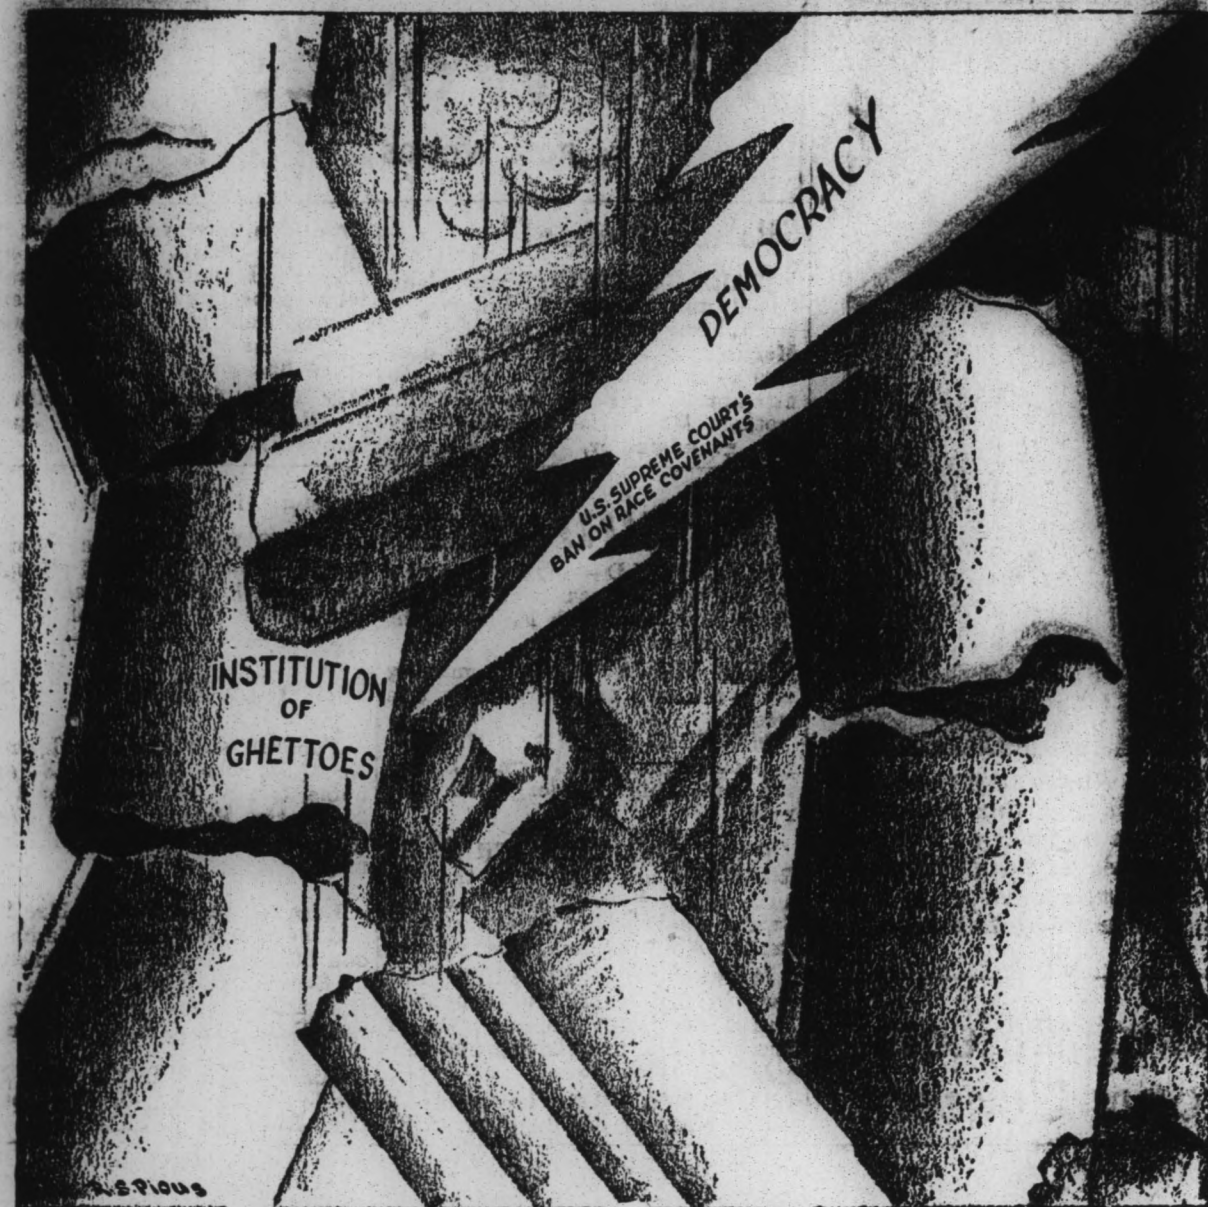

The importance or possibility of reducing unemployment on all levels, or again developing a worker potential commensurate with the nation's theoretical consumer potential is a great challenge. Today, many working people over the land are fully cognizant of the anomalies intervening as one hears of stepping up consumer potential where this involves achieving the zenith of production potential.

Herein, it has been charged that ultra-conservative leaders on the business and industrial front surely need a "new image." It follows that avid champions of the "right-to-work" law are frigid in attitudes on fair employment and vocational training — for all workers regardless of national origin, race or creed.

Yet there is no way to reach the top in consumer potential — on the community, state or national levels — without stepping up total buying power (wage-earners') on any or all levels noted.

It follows that individuals, institutions or organizations with strong inclinations to repress wage scales, or retain minimum wage scales are at the same time repressing the total buying power on any or all levels.

Finally, or again, the importance of reducing unemployment levels—or building up generally all employment levels—must be taken into account in achieving first the top of productive potential or in turn the top of consumer potential. Seemingly, it follows that all workers, regardless of national origin, race or creed should have, must have chances in vocational training and chances to work anywhere, all times — in keeping with their ability or spirit and aptitude for the job.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

The Role of the Church In Christian Growth

REV. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

(LARGER LESSON: I. Cor. 12. LESSON PRINT: I. Cor. 12:12-27. MOTTO TEXT: Eph. 4:16. TIME: A.D. 30). During this quarter we have been studying the life of the average Christian. We have thought of him as a tree planted by the waters and have been examining "How He Grows and Why."

We have seen our Lord as a child grow in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man. We have studied the various phases of the Christian life, the knowledge of God's Word and Christian growth. We have watched our appreciation of each other and the great Christian graces.

We come together in this particular lesson to think of the church as the living body of Christ. He compares the church as a human body. He sees the church a body with eyes, ears, a mouth, feet and all the required organs necessary for human growth and sustenance.

We would naturally ask, "How does your garden grow?" and "Why does it grow?" This is the quest of our lesson today.

If one is planted in Christ, which is the primary necessity, is it necessary that we also be planted in the church? Why and what are the vital elements of the Christian life and how do the reach all the parts of the body?

Therefore we venture 10 principles of growth of the Christian in the the church which are so essential that the absence of any of them leaves the Christian weak and sickly. Let us examine them one by one.

JESUS AS LORD (I. Cor. 12:1-3) A Christian grows as he is able to appreciate Jesus as Lord of his life and the source of the church's life. Probably our largest problem is that we have accepted Christ as our Saviour but not as Lord.

Having given the heart to Him, we will not bow the knee to Him. We still think it our right to determine where we will bow. We refuse to pray regularly and read regularly His word, to tithing our income regularly — thus leaving little isles of the life where money or good time or just the old self has sway over our lives. But Jesus must be Lord of the whole life in a growing way.

SOURCE OF OUR TALENTS (I. Cor. 12:4-11) A Christian grows as he gives Holy Spirit sole credit for his abilities and capabilities and is thankful to Him for the same.

This is best revealed by one's willingness to regard regular hours of prayer alone with God and to publicly acclaim Him as ruler of any of our special gifts. This means that all of us have been called out by giving of certain talents and surrendering their use to the church and Christ for His services.

RESPECT FOR LEADERSHIP (I. Cor. 12:4-7) A Christian grows as he is able to appreciate and respect Christ as head of the church, his own minister as overseer and all the minor administrations and operations in their proper place.

One of the grave problems facing us in our efforts to think of a closer relationship between Baptists and Catholics is their insistence to regard the Bishop at Rome as Christ's regent there on earth and a hierarchical line of leaders down to the local parish.

This is so disregarding the spiritual leadership of Jesus and the individual right of the believer to go directly by prayer to Christ that the very existence of such a bishop leaves him an idol and the system an affront to the right of each believer to see God and make direct confessions to Him for himself.

However, also where Baptist believers regard anyone—national president, state president, district president, pastor, deacon, parent or teacher's word to take precedence of the Word of God he equally bows the knee to an idol in that he fails to respect the final authority of Jesus as revealed in His Word.

CHURCH UNITY (I. Cor. 12:12-14) A church member grows as he respects the Lord Jesus Christ as head of the church and his thoughts as final authority and the Holy Spirit as his individual inner agent and guide.

Once this is realized the church may not be as divided as we may think. We have one Lord Jesus Christ, the righteous one faith in that, Christ and our baptism by Christ in that relationship. This baptism I here reiterate is of the spirit. (Matt. 3:11; Eph. 4:7).

The ceremony of water baptism which Jesus honored and instituted is initiatory and in due respect of this baptism or the spirit. It is as difficult to vote unity by human will as mechanically force blood into human veins without the assistance of the heartbeats.

Often doctors tell you he will not take anesthesia because the heartbeat is not strong enough to circulate the new blood in the body. So unless we natural flow of the new life in Christ which is love the divine nature itself, does not flow from heart to heart there is no unity.

THE HOLY SPIRIT (I. Cor. 12:13; 26-31) A Christian grows as he is able to surrender his life to the inner guidance of the Spirit of God and follow His leadings. Prayer, Bible study, obedience and inner discipline are primary essentials here. I cannot fully instruct here. The inner guide must.

VOLUNTARY WORK (I. Cor. 12:15-18) A Christian grows as he realizes that he owes his church the best use of his talents possible and that he has no right to withhold the use of his talents for the common good of his church and humanity.

My talents are not my own. They are God's. He gave them to me and puts me in the church of His choice. I only frustrate myself when for rash reasons

I say I am not of that church because I cannot have my way. I won't work there because I do not like the deacon, teacher or preacher. These things I may talk over first with the overseer, the minister and if I am not fully satisfied, I may go in my secret closet with Jesus, the Head, and through His Spirit may settle my difficulty or move me into other fields of service.

VARIETY AND NECESSITY (I. Cor. 12:18-21) A Christian grows as he realizes and recognizes that all types of members are necessary both to us and the church, weak or strong, ignorant and intelligent all.

God has made each member a unique person in himself and the variety of his background and training makes him different. Yet there is a point where all are useful and necessary. And a member grows as he is patient and long suffering and forgiving to find the focal point of Christlike cooperation.

WORKING WITH THE DIFFICULT (I. Cor. 12:22-24) A Christian grows as he learns to spend much of his time and talent in developing his weaker or less beautiful brother. There are some members who are just ugly and difficult to deal with.

It seems Judas was such. Do you note the patience and apparent shielding of his reputation which Jesus showed him at the supper table? Do you recall how much patience Jesus spent on Simon Peter? Do you remember the patience of Barnabas in the making of Paul and John Mark? Do you remember the patience of David with Saul?

By patience we possess our souls. By impatience we lose possession of our souls.

FORGIVENESS (Col. 3:13) A Christian grows as he learns to forgive and forget offenses. This was discussed in last Sunday's lesson. Review it.

CHRISTIAN CONCERN (I. Cor. 12:25-26) A Christian grows as he has concern for and care for the well-being of one another. Dr. Andrew J. Brown, pastor of Greater St. John Baptist Church, Indianapolis, preached a master message on the "Supreme Necessity" in our churches for Christian concern for one another and throughout the world for the weak. The essence of the parable of the Good Samaritan was Luke 10.

It is as follows: (1) the least, last and lost, falling among thieves; (2) too much office, no concern—priest and Levite; (3) compassionate concern, Samaritan went where he was; (4) care, oil, wine, a beast to ride, first aid, responsibility whatsoever more I will pay if.

I will talk more about concern next week. May we close with this hymn thought: Blessed be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love The fellowship of kindred minds Is like to that above. We share our mutual woes Our mutual burden bear And often for each other flows A sympathizing tear.

VOICE FROM THE GALLERY

Negro Leadership In Indianapolis at Low Ebb

By Andrew W. Ramsey

It has been the painful duty of this column, from time to time, to assess the quality of or lack of leadership among Negroes in our community, and a year or so ago the "Voice From the Gallery" wrongly assumed that Negro leadership in the Hoosier capital had reached its lowest ebb.

That assumption was indeed wrong, for while leadership was both weak and to a large measure ineffective it was not called upon to meet the great challenges which today's Negro faces.

In the deep South, Negroes who had for generations maintained a sort of uneasy peace with racism, suddenly found that their patience had been exhausted and found leadership in such persons as Daisy Bates of Little Rock and Martin Luther King of Montgomery and Atlanta.

TAKING THEIR cue and receiving their inspiration from the Rev. Mr. King and Mrs. Bates, new Negro leaders appeared in dozens of Southern communities and instituted the greatest moral revolution in America since Abolition days.

Negroes in other parts of the country were encouraged by the courage of the Southern Negroes' revolt against second-class citizenship and wanted to get in on the act.

In many instances Northerners went South to be in on the action. In most communities, the Negroes were shaken out of their lethargy and made aware of the fact that while they had a few more advantages than their Southern brothers, they, too, were sub-citizens. And in most of these awakened communities leadership was found for effective action to remove the inequities in their communities.

In Indianapolis, where for all practical purposes, action against second-class citizenship had been at a standstill since 1949, Negroes started to look for a leader, and found several gentlemen of the cloth who were waiting to receive the mantle of Martin Luther King. They captured the NAACP, the traditional leader in civil rights causes, and proceeded to turn it into a hymn-singing, convention-going order. And not content with crippling the Indianapolis branch with church politics and inaction, they succeeded in taking over the state Conference of NAACP branches and aborting all effective action which might put Indianapolis and Indiana Negroes into the revolution against racism.

IN THE MEANTIME, Indianapolis Negroes were giving elaborate parties, building luxurious homes and living generally like the haute bourgeoisie among the whites. Those who had the training and the resources for leadership had no stomach for it and in many instances spoke out against shaking their dream boats.

So for several years, Negroes in Indianapolis have had to participate vicariously in the historic struggle for human decency which Negroes the country over have been carrying on. They have read the news and viewed the television presentations of the battles of Little Rock, New Orleans, Montgomery and Jackson, while earnestly hoping that none of their relatives might send them one of those "wish you were here" cards.

During all of this time, of course, there was a great deal of Negro leadership for such things as social clubs, church organizations, lodges and Greek letter societies; and there were Negro heads of educational and community organizations as well as hundreds of Negro professional men and women. But their leadership has been confined to their narrow areas and they, either out of fear, ignorance, indifference or opposition, have not chosen to take on the job of leading Negroes out of the Egypt of second class citizenship.

AND THERE have been a baker's dozen of conscientious Negro believers in first class citizenship who did not consider themselves leaders and who would have been content to follow a dedicated leader into the thick of the battle against human indignity. Their number would have grown if there had been effective leadership at the top.

Such is the present situation in Indianapolis, but there is some hope of relief in a scheduled meeting which is to take place early next month.

It is a summit meeting of Negro leaders—many of whom are surprised to be so called—at the FAC Home on Capitol Avenue. The FAC is the Association of Federated Clubs—a sort of congress of social clubs, whose primary interest is to further the social activities of its member clubs, but which has from time to time stepped into the vacuum where leadership in social action was both lacking and needed. The President of the FAC is Sterling James, well known educator. He, together with Atty. Rufus Kuykendall, are called the conference to see if they cannot possibly get the Negroes who are leaders in small segments of our community life to assume a large share of the leadership required to make Indianapolis a democratic community.

IT IS TO be hoped that they succeed, for, with the Negro population now at twenty percent and rising, there is no need for Negroes to continue to take the crumbs dropped from the city's banquet table.

Letters to the Editor...

White March to Open Door, Negroes to Blank Places

To the Editor:

I have made it my business to look into some of our schools because I am interested in young people. Not long ago, I visited School 41 where I spoke on "Home and School."

I saw many mothers, listened to reports from teachers, saw the small children march in with the flag, salute it and recite the "Pledge of Allegiance."

I could see the young people were reaching up for something because they realized someday they must give their seats to other children. I said to myself, "Where will these children get a job?"

THEY DON'T want to swing a mop or broom after receiving diplomas nor go into the kitchen and wash pots and pans, after their parents have paid $600 for them to learn to operate an IBM machine.

As they take the mop in hand they see one of their white former schoolmates step in and realize, "I know more than him. Here I have a mop and he is sitting at the desk."

Hundreds of white and colored children are on the march. The whites are marching into an open door while the colored are marching into blank places.

THE WHITE race realized that the ox cart, the wagon, and the horse and buggy could not compete with the times ahead so they work together and devised the jet planes and the push buttons.

The great trouble with my race is that we are afraid to trust one another. Some time ago I said that if I could get nine men willing to pay $200 down, I would put up the same amount and go into a business. I waited and no one came forward. We are all afraid some smart fellow plans to rob us.

We don't know we were robbed before we entered the world. We were robbed of our identity. All these fancy English names were given to us. Is that not robbery? We must conclude that the Negro has no feeling, no passion, no desire for anything.

THE NEGRO is human like any other man. His hopes, his desires, his ambitions should be no less, hence, it is his duty to stir himself.

WARRIORS TO LOUISVILLE WITH A PASS, A KEEP AND A RAIN-PRAYER

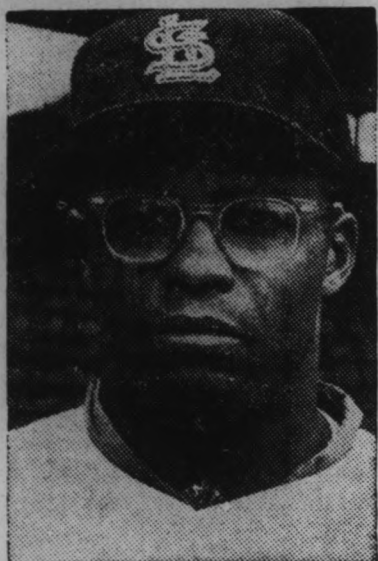

'Pinch-Homer' Crowe Signed as Scout for St. Louis Cardinals

ST. LOUIS—George Crowe, a native Hoosier and the greatest home-run pinch hitter in the history of baseball, has signed a contract to scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, it was announced Thursday by General Manager Bing Devine.

The 38-year-old Crowe, a native of Whiteland, Ind., and brother of Athletic Director Ray Crowe of Indianapolis Attucks High School, holds the major league record of 14 pinch homers. He was recently given his unconditional release as a player by the Charleston, W. Va., club of the International League, a Cardinal farm.

The 1939 "Mr. Basketball" of Indiana entered professional baseball in 1949 and spent almost 8 years in the National League. His finest year was 1957, when the big 1st-baseman hit 32 homers and batted in 92 runs for the Cincinnati Reds.

Crowe will make his headquarters at his home in Springfield Gardens, N.Y. He will not be restricted to any area in his scouting, the Cards said.

I. U. in Shape--Till Saturday!

BLOOMINGTON—The Indiana backfield should be in its best shape of the season Saturday at Michigan State—and it'll need to be that and some more too!

Ailing wingback Nate Ramsey, who didn't even suit up for the Hoosiers' 33-7 sweep over Washington State, is expected to be mended by the time Phil Dickens' boys walk into the bear-trap at East Lansing, Mich. But he might be smarter to stay injured.

While I.U. was losing at Iowa and then getting its first sweet taste of victory at the expense of the visiting Cougars, all the Spartans were doing was to knock off previously undefeated Michigan and Notre Dame back to back.

FLASHY SOPHOMORE half-back Marv Woodson and quarterback Woody Moore each scored two touchdowns against Washington State, and Woodson added a point-after.

Michigan State has several Negro players, including All-American fullback candidate Ron Hatcher; end Lonnie Sanders, who caught a pass for a PAT against Notre Dame; tackle Jim Bobbitt, all on the offensive unit; and defenders Ernie Clark, end, and Sherman Lewis, halfback.

By CHARLES S. PRESTON
The Indianapolis Warriors may hope it rains Saturday in Louisville—hard.

At least, the local pro pigskinners eked out a 10-7 victory over the Raiders when they met in a "mud battle" here last month. There were those who said the Weather Man was going for our side on that occasion.

It began to look like the pessimists were right Saturday at Victory Field, when we got clobbered by Grand Rapids 42-20. About the only Naptown horses present were those in the Shrine Patrol and the Manual band. Trailing 27-7 at the half, Coach Gene Gedman should have asked permission to suit 'em up.

Fullback Willie Jones was out—presumably with injured ribs. Halfback Tommy Fletcher had been nursing an ankle. All the Warriors had from scrimmage (to modify a proverb) was a pass, a keep and it looked like somebody wasn't praying.

UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES Gedman draped his line across the field and had quarterback Tommy McDonald taking every direct snap in the fullback position. Tommy would then pass or— with more frequent success—keep the ball for an end run. There weren't more than a handful of handoffs (including a pretty pitch-out to Dan Ane) the entire game.

This was heady, big-pro stuff, but the fans didn't like it. As one said after the game, "It takes all the fun out of football." Of course we might venture that the verdict would have been otherwise if the score had been reversed.

Brightest spot for the Warriors, offense-wise, was a sparkling performance by halfback Buddy Allen in running back kickoffs for 35 and 38 yards. This reminds us of a press-box gag at the expense of Ball State which was being smothered by Butler three weeks ago.

"AT LEAST THEY look real good returning kickoffs," somebody ventured.

"They ought to," retorted Bob Barnett of the Muncie Star. "They've had so much experience at it!"

On defense, too, the Warriors were hurting real bad. The loss for the season of ace linebacker Jim Glover left a gaping hole in the secondary. The 34-year-old veteran from Western Kentucky broke a leg in two places the week before.

What with other injuries, it was a patched-up defense as well as attack that Gedman threw at the league leaders. We noted that Joe King was playing left end instead of linebacker.

AGAINST THIS MAKESHIFT lineup the invading Shamrocks fielded a club that was really "grand" as well as "rapid." Speed was provided by halfbacks Leon "The Jet" Burton from Arizona State and Jim Small from Pittsburgh.

Burton late in the first half took a handoff 35 yards down the middle for a touchdown without a hand laid on him. He must have had good blocking, but even so, how he did it is a mystery. He is fast, man, fast.

Small rambled pretty much at will and turned in a 17-yard touchdown run. Quarterback Jack Moynihan's passing was superb. One long, long aerial to Frank Lehnen resulted in an 85-yard touchdown play—and the worst was, we knew it was coming!

BESIDES BURTON AND Small, tan Shamrocks included 6-6, 245-pound tackle Rufus Granderson from Prairie View; guard Bill

HOOSIERS' QUARTERBACK: One of 3 tan quarterbacks in the Big 10 is Woody Moore, 200-pound junior from Duquesne, Pa., who had a field day Saturday as Indiana broke into the winning column with a 33-7 rout of Washington State. Primarily a defensive quarterback, the half-Indian Moore fired passes of 19 and 24 yards to Marv Woodson and Bill Olavsky, and scored two touchdowns. Climax of his performance came in the 4th quarter, when he intercepted a pass, eluded a mass of opponents, and raced 62 yards for a TD. The Hoosiers will have their hands full this Saturday, playing at No. 1-ranked Michigan State.

Chi Majors Net Team Holds Place for Herschel Turner

CHICAGO (ANP)—A place was being held open last week on the Chicago Majors' pro basketball squad for Herschel Turner, 6-3 former star of Indianapolis Shortridge and Nebraska. Turner was due for release from military service.

A pair of former Indiana University netters remained on the 14-man squad after several prunings by Coach Andy Phillip. They were Herb Lee, 6-foot guard from South Bend; and Bob Wilkinson, 6-1, of LaPorte, Hoosier captain two seasons ago and last year with the Denver-Chicago Truckers in the National Industrial League.

OTHERS SURVIVING the cuts included Nat "Sweetwater" Clifton, 6-8, Xavier (La.) U., Harlem Globetrotters, New York Knickerbockers and Detroit Pistons; Governor Vaughn, 6-4, University of Illinois and Globetrotters; Frank Burks, 6-5, Wisconsin and Trotters; Leroy Gibson, 6-5, Florida A & M, Syracuse Nats and Baltimore Bullets; Jackie Fitzpatrick, 6-4, Knoxville College and Trotters; Ken Peterson, 7, Murray State (Ky.); Sam Barnard, 6-6, Iowa State; Kelly Coleman, 6-3, Kentucky Wesleyan and later with the Knicks and Bullets; John Wessels, 6-6, last season's Illinois captain; Ray Zagar, 5-10, Iowa; Joe Scott, 6-4, Missouri; and Ron Sabiesczyk, 6-3, De Paul University and the Knicks.

HERSCHEL TURNER

Abe Saperstein's Majors will launch the opening season of the American Basketball League on Monday in the Los Angeles Sports Arena against the Los Angeles Jets.

Their first home test will come Nov. 17 at Chicago Stadium against the San Francisco Saints. It will be on a double bill, with the Globetrotters opposing the Washington Generals.

Tigers Seek 6th Win at Gerstmeyer

The rejuvenated Attucks Tigers, fresh from an unheard-of slaughter of Shortridge, were scheduled to go for their 6th victory of the season on Friday, Oct. 27, at Terre Haute Gerstmeyer.

Attucks was favored to win, but Coach Graham Martin cautiously noted the Black Cats play a strong defensive game.

"They've beaten 4 teams 6-0," he warned. "I scouted Gerstmeyer myself, and they could make it another defensive battle like the Wood game."

Smarting from a scoreless draw with Wood the week before, Martin's gridders racked up one of the most lopsided victories in Attucks' history as they demolished Shortridge 28-6.

Quarterback Bennie Parker led the Tiger scoring parade with 3 touchdowns. He swept around left end from the 36 for his first tally; intercepted a pass for his second; and on a fake punt, ran 75 yards down the middle for his third score.

Other Attucks TD's were racked up by Richard Allen, Billy Taylor and Wesley Brooks, on a 40-yard pass from Albert Umphrey. Points after were scored by Richard Allen and David Bridgeforth.

The Blue Devils' only tally was registered in the 4th quarter on a 7-yard pass from Wade Stewart to Jim Bean.

ANOTHER LOPSIDED WINNER last week was Washington, which swamped Ben Davis 31-7.

Bill Hattix scored 2 touchdowns for the Continentals, while singletons were registered by Joe Puricha, Jerry Sanders and Jake Thompson. Denny Troth tallied the PAT.

Washington on Wednesday of this week, after this page went to press, met high-flying Anderson. The Indians last week handed Lawrence Central its first defeat, 26-14.

Don Jordan and Tom Seal were the big guns for Anderson on that occasion. Jordan scored 2 TD's while Seal tallied one himself and passed for 2—a 13-yarder to Jordan and an 11-yarder to Larry Bausman.

WOOD WAS SLATED to play at Bloomington University on Friday. Last month Attucks defeated the Univees, 12-7.

Unbeaten Iowa Brings Tan Stars To Purdue Tilt

WEST LAFAYETTE—It'll be undefeated Iowa, fresh from a 47-15 pasting of Wisconsin, at Purdue on Saturday in the state college football game of the week.

The Hawkeyes could boast an all-Negro backfield when their players are all in one piece. Last week star halfback Larry Ferguson and quarterback Milburn Hollis were out, leaving speedster halfbacks Sammie Harris and Joe Williams to carry on. Each scored a touchdown in Iowa's rout of the Badgers.

Louis Holland counted for Wisconsin.

Ferguson is considered Iowa's top player, excelling both on offense and defense. He suffered a strained knee ligament in the California game Sept. 30, but should be ready to go Saturday.

Channel 4 to Air Bouts; Entry Deadline Nov. 1

The Indiana AAU boxing tournament has gone TV! The selection of the Hoosier fistic team, which in the past few years has been done quietly and with little or no actual competition, next month will be right out on your TV screen.

Elimination bouts of the AAU tourney will be aired in the "Future Champions" hour on WTTV, Channel 4, on four Thursdays beginning Nov. 16. The actual bouts will be taped on Saturday afternoons from Nov. 11 through Dec. 2.

Final bouts of the AAU tournament will take place Wednesday, Dec. 13, at the National Guard Armory. The winners in the various classes will then be eligible for the National AAU meet.

The tourney will be a joint promotion of the Indiana Fathers and Sons Club and the Veterans' Boxers Association of Indiana. It is open to experienced Open Class boxers over 16 years old and living in the Hoosier state.

The deadline for entries is next Wednesday, Nov. 1, it was announced. Entries should be mailed to Bill Sweet, Indiana AAU boxing chairman, at 2004 N. Auburn, Indianapolis 24.

Four entries from the St. Rita's Boxing Club already have been made. The Recorder learned. They are Cornelius Johnson and Johnny Adams, heavyweights; Robert Bolden, Jr., 126 pounds, and Elmo Flynn, 118.

Another St. Rita's contender is expected to be Perry Bailey, 1959 Golden Gloves champion. He is trying for the 135-pound weight but may have to go 147.

WHILE ALL THIS is in the offing, Louisville's Mayor's Youth Program will send 6 fighters here to battle Naptown opponents on the TV fights Thursday, Nov. 2.

Local leather-throwers are hoping these invaders will not be so tough as the two Louisville pugilists who won matches aired on Thursday, Oct. 26.

Coached by Joe Martin, the discoverer of Cassius Clay, these "Louisvillians" were from the "Tomorrow's Champions" television program in the Kentucky city.

The main event pitted Louisville's Charlie Dobbins—an experienced heavy who has fought the likes of Cassius Clay, James Ellis and Donnie Hall—against our reigning Golden Gloves novice champion, Johnny Adams.

Adams, who was fighting his first Open bout, seemed to have the edge in a left-jabbing 1st round. But Dobbins opened the 2nd with a flurry and took the decision from the St. Rita's battler.

THE OTHER LOUISVILLE fighter, 130-pounder Tommy Hale, TKO'd Johnny Steinhilber of the Riley PAL Club in the 2nd round. Results of all-Naptown bouts were:

The rejuvenated Attucks Tigers, fresh from an unheard-of slaughter of Shortridge, were scheduled to go for their 6th victory of the season on Friday, Oct. 27, at Terre Haute Gerstmeyer.

Attucks was favored to win, but Coach Graham Martin cautiously noted the Black Cats play a strong defensive game.

"They've beaten 4 teams 6-0," he warned. "I scouted Gerstmeyer myself, and they could make it another defensive battle like the Wood game."

Smarting from a scoreless draw with Wood the week before, Martin's gridders racked up one of the most lopsided victories in Attucks' history as they demolished Shortridge 28-6.

Quarterback Bennie Parker led the Tiger scoring parade with 3 touchdowns. He swept around left end from the 36 for his first tally; intercepted a pass for his second; and on a fake punt, ran 75 yards down the middle for his third score.

Other Attucks TD's were racked up by Richard Allen, Billy Taylor and Wesley Brooks, on a 40-yard pass from Albert Umphrey. Points after were scored by Richard Allen and David Bridgeforth.

The Blue Devils' only tally was registered in the 4th quarter on a 7-yard pass from Wade Stewart to Jim Bean.

ANOTHER LOPSIDED WINNER last week was Washington, which swamped Ben Davis 31-7.

Bill Hattix scored 2 touchdowns for the Continentals, while singletons were registered by Joe Puricha, Jerry Sanders and Jake Thompson. Denny Troth tallied the PAT.

Washington on Wednesday of this week, after this page went to press, met high-flying Anderson. The Indians last week handed Lawrence Central its first defeat, 26-14.

'Ring of Fire' With David Janssen and Joyce Taylor at Walker Sun.

WELL... Whatta-you-know... are these appointments robbing them trying to get the off to come back to town and live. As you know several years ago the grand rush was started to the suburbs... for more relaxed living, as it were... and to get away from the influx of Negroes. Now the majority of people living downtown within walking distance of the stores are Negroes. This, they did not bargain for... Because in the next 10 years, unless something is done to bring these people back in town, who knows, the town might just see its first Negro mayor-att candidate. Right now the downtown merchants are not making a strong bid for this Negro patronage which surrounds them. (We figured at the start of the exodus, the whites would return in spite of the "encroachment" of Negroes as their next door neighbors.) This is partly the reason they don't elect councilmen by wards... if they did we would have four or five and that wouldn't be kosher with the bosses... and we don't know why? The Negro can no longer embarrass them by asking for his rights... They are winning them legally through the courts.

GOOD OLE RICHMOND... and we do mean Virginia... land of our birth... where we were nurtured on bacon fat and white beans... molasses and biscuits... hominy grits and gravy... cultivated on chicken and biscuits and a sea of pretty girls (prettiest in the nation), has just promoted Lieut. Harvey E. Hicks to captain in that city's fire department... Richmond also has a Negro member of the Housing and Redevelopment Authority; one member of the School Board (note: we have none); one member of the Planning Commission (do we have one?); one police detective lieutenant (we have just one). Not bad for our home city. Huh? And the mayor of Lumberton, N.C., last week named a Negro to the City Council, when a vacancy arose. That's more than we can say of good old Naptown. When a vacancy existed here and the mayor had a chance to name the new member, he passed up qualified Negroes (including an ex-councilman) and named an ex-chief of police.

ARE WE LOSING OR WINNING...? We are all happy when we read of Negroes being appointed to higher positions in the federal government... But,

Andrew and Virginia Stone, famous husband-and-wife producing team, who make all their suspense-films entirely on location rather than within the confines of a Hollywood studio, went to America's northwest forest country to film their newest thriller, "Ring of Fire," starring David Janssen, Joyce Taylor and Frank Gorshin. (the pix starts Sunday at Walker).

The action-filled story involves a manhunt, with a deputy sheriff held captive by a trio of hoodlums, including a girl who plays cat-and-mouse with a detective, leading him on and repelling him by turns. The drama moves to an unforgettable climax in the holocaust of a spectacular forest fire and burning of a planing mill which sets an entire community on fire. The

Jimmy (Hammond Organ) Smith Now Playing Pink Poodle Lounge

Jimmy (Hammond Organ) Smith and his trio are now appearing nightly at the new Pink Poodle Lounge, 252 N. Capitol, in downtown Indianapolis. The trio continues through Nov. 4 at the popular "House of Stars."

The famous jazz organist, rated as one of the best in the nation never took any lessons on the instrument. He started playing the piano when he was 9 years old in his hometown of Norristown, Pa. He began his climb to fame after winning first place on the late Major Bowes talent show as a teenager in a large Philadelphia theater. He decided to take up the organ in 1955, following a 2½ year stint in the U.S. Navy with special services.

Jimmy has written an album he calls J.O.S. It gives with his say how he got the money... But we all can urge our own judgment... which tells us of the many hazards we face when leaving valuables in our homes... in our cars and carrying same on our person... Why, just the other night a friend of ours was attacked in the 500 block of the Avenoo and cut about the face in a robbery attempt... You can bet your bottom dollar if we have these many addicts roaming the streets daily, then somebody is in for a hard time ere the wintry winds begin to blow... and we ain't just poppin' our chops!

JUST TOTHER day we met a fella who is existing on $42 a month. Can you live on this paltry pittance? Since the poor will be with us always, why not help them to live like human beings? We are doin' more for foreigners than for home-grown Americans. WHY? Give these people employment and they'll take care of themselves. But if they are refused jobs, what do you expect them to do? This is America, the land of the Free and Home of the Brave... Let no man be without the necessities of life in a land where mink coats, Cadillac automobiles and Scotch are as common as tomorrow's rain. Not to mention the caviar, bourbon and deep freezes filled to the brim (?) with venison, quail, choice steaks and what have you. Let's get up off these poor people and help them to live better in this land of plenty, where the strong smile at the weak, and the rich bypass the poor.

FULLER PRODUCTS CO. moves... Miss Mattie Rice, hard-working and enterprising school teacher, has been appointed manager of the Fuller Products local office at 3119 N. Capitol Ave., where a full line of cosmetics is on display daily for the convenience of shoppers and the many agents servicing this area... The company, one of the largest cosmetics manufacturers in the country, is headed by S. B. Fuller, chairman of the board of the Pittsburgh Courier, and rated as one of the wealthiest Negroes in America. Products of the company are sold by thousands of agents all over the world. Miss Rice announced this week that the Indianapolis branch office has openings for young men and women as agents with the most liberal commissions paid by any manufacturer in this field. For further information call WA. 5-0586 and embark on a business career of your own. Agents can earn up to $200 a week with a little effort. A good deal for the right persons. tackle (Coach Jerry Burns calls him his best lineman); Pelton Rogers, end; Bill Perkins, shifted from end to fullback; Jim Winston, end; and Lonnie Rogers, a sophomore halfback.

Pre-season polls billed Iowa as the nation's No. 1 team, and the Hawkeyes looked like just that last week according to Don Fuoss, Purdue assistant coach who scouted them.

MEANWHILE PURDUE licked the wounds of its second 2-point loss of the season, 16-14 at the hands of Michigan. The Boilermakers' only other defeat was 22-20 by Notre Dame.

Negro halfbacks Dave Raimey and Bennie McRae each scored a TD for the Wolverines. Raimey's came on a one-yard plunge, while the flashy McRae grabbed a pass from Dave Glinka on a play that covered 71 yards.

Ten players for Purdue include halfback Tom Bloom from Weirton, W. Va.; end Forest Farmer, Zanesville, Ohio; end Harold Wells, sophomore from St. Louis Sumner High School; fullback Gene Donaldson, sophomore from Clarksville, W. Va.; guard Wallace Florence, soph from East Orange, N.J.; tackle Nathaniel Jackson, sophomore, Elkins, W. Va., and end Donald Ragsdale, Mansfield, Ohio.

Hump Jones and Quartette Whaling at Barrington Lounge

The management of the new and ritzy Barrington Lounge, 2501 E. Minnesota St., extends a hearty "Thank You" to all the fine people who came out for the big opening. And to show their appreciation for this wonderful turn out, they are currently presenting nightly from 9 till 2 the Hump Jones Quartette, one of the hottest aggregations now traveling through this section of the country.

Members of the quartette are: Jones on organ, Shedrick Hobbs on drums, Eddie Mingo on guitar, and the devil himself, Daddy B., on tenor sax. And this fella is real "crazy" musically speaking.

Hump Jones is a product of Cleveland, Ohio, where he has been
